Mrs. Anna J. Cooper,
201 T Street, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mrs. Cooper:

Professor William C. Holbrook and I, both of Northwestern University, are preparing, for early publication with D. Appleton-Century Co., an anthology of medieval French literature in modernized versions, and should be very grateful to you for permission to reprint certain excerpts from your translation of Le Pèlerinage de Charlemagne (Paris, Lahure, 1925).

The passages which we should like to use are as follows: p. 2, pp. 25-31 passim, 37-43 passim. Unfortunately I have not the text at hand at the moment, but if there is any question about the extent of the material we wish to use, I should be glad to give you the exact lines.

Apparently the book is not copyrighted in the U. S., but we have hesitated to use even the brief passages indicated without your authorization. Needless to say, we shall make full acknowledgement of the source upon which we have drawn.

We are indebted to Professor Jameson, of Oberlin, for obtaining your present address.

Very truly yours,

Thomas R. Palfrey
